Subject: PeacePreneuring Incubator Challenge Workshop as a NextGenE Cooperative Development project

Dear Fellow Business Leader,
As a successful SME owner, you understand innovation, dedication, and the power of a strong vision. We invite you to explore an exciting NextGenE PeacePreneuring side hustle through our PeacePreneuring Works Incubator Challenge. This initiative offers a transformative approach to building a peace-focused economy, providing an opportunity to channel your entrepreneurial spirit into a venture that offers growth and contributes to a more peaceful and progressive future.

Why Consider This NextGenE PeacePreneuring Side Hustle?

- Purpose-Driven Impact: Leverage your business acumen to foster peace and positive change, creating a legacy beyond your current enterprise.
- Innovative Ventures: Engage with cutting-edge concepts, including our People's Progressive AiHimsa Peace Economy Virtual Theme Park (modeled on Epcot Center's original design) – a unique platform for impact.
- Develop New Skills & Networks: Benefit from associated development training sessions designed to equip you for this unique endeavor and connect with a community of forward-thinkers.
- Flexible Engagement: Designed as a side hustle, this allows you to integrate PeacePreneuring into your existing commitments, adding a new dimension to your professional life.

What's Involved?

We are launching parallel PeacePreneuring Works Incubator Challenge projects and offering a unique opportunity to get involved from the ground up. This initiative is supported by frameworks and resources designed for impact.
